The New England Fashion + Design Association's SoNo Fashion+ Design CoOperative:

Designers: In need of models, fashion photographers, a space to shoot catalog images or a media and/or buyer accessible sapce to launch your fashion or life-style designs?

Models: Are you looking for the opportunity to build your portfolio or work with established and emerging designers?

Boutiques and Merchandisers: Are you looking for a high-traffic high-profile fashion retail and merchandising opportunity? A short-term high-impact concept store, product-launch retail location? A large sample size retail/market research or brand testing site?

We've got the ideal, most fashionable and well priced solution around: The New England Fashion+Design Association's SoNo Design District Design CoOperative A 6000 SqFt design center strategically located at the South Norwalk Train Station (New Haven Bound Side).

With buyers and fashion media from New York to New Haven only minutes away (via Metro-North or I-95), and Boston, Philadelphia and Providence nearby (via Amtrack)...with onsite retail opportunities, customer brand experience and intercept market research opportunities.... with amenities ranging from an intimate buyer's showroom with a runway to a soon-to-be opening world-class Cafe (Chocopologie).....the New England Fashion+Design CoOperative is the place to build, launch or grow your fashion life-style brand!
